

1. Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre

Completed in 1922, 2,260 seats

Opulent Kodak Hall is the primary concert hall for Eastman's orchestras, wind ensembles, jazz ensembles, and chorale. It also is the principal hall for the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. In 2004, the first phase of a major renovation project replaced the stage and improved acoustics for concerts, opera, and other performances. In 2009 over 800 seats were removed to allow wider aisles, the addition of box seats, and the expansion of the lobby.

1st Floor—Main Building

2. Hatch Recital Hall

Completed in 2010, 222 seats

Along with its elegant appearance and outstanding acoustics, Hatch Recital Hall features the latest in acoustical and multimedia technology, including Internet2 and web-streaming.

1st Floor—Eastman East Wing

3. Kilbourn Hall

Completed in 1924, 455 seats

One of the finest chamber music halls in the world, it was named in honor of George Eastman's mother, Maria Kilbourn Eastman. The hall is three stories high, decorated in Venetian Renaissance style, and well-known for its beauty, pure acoustics, and excellent sight-lines.

1st Floor—Main Building

4. Sibley Music Library

The largest academic music library in North America, founded in 1904. Holdings include approximately 352,000 cataloged books and scores, a recorded sound collection of 90,000+ audio and video recordings, 600+ music periodicals, and the Ruth T. Watanabe Special Collections. Through a grant from the NEH, Sibley is currently in the process of digitizing thousands of public domain scores.

2nd, 3rd, 4th Floor—Miller Center

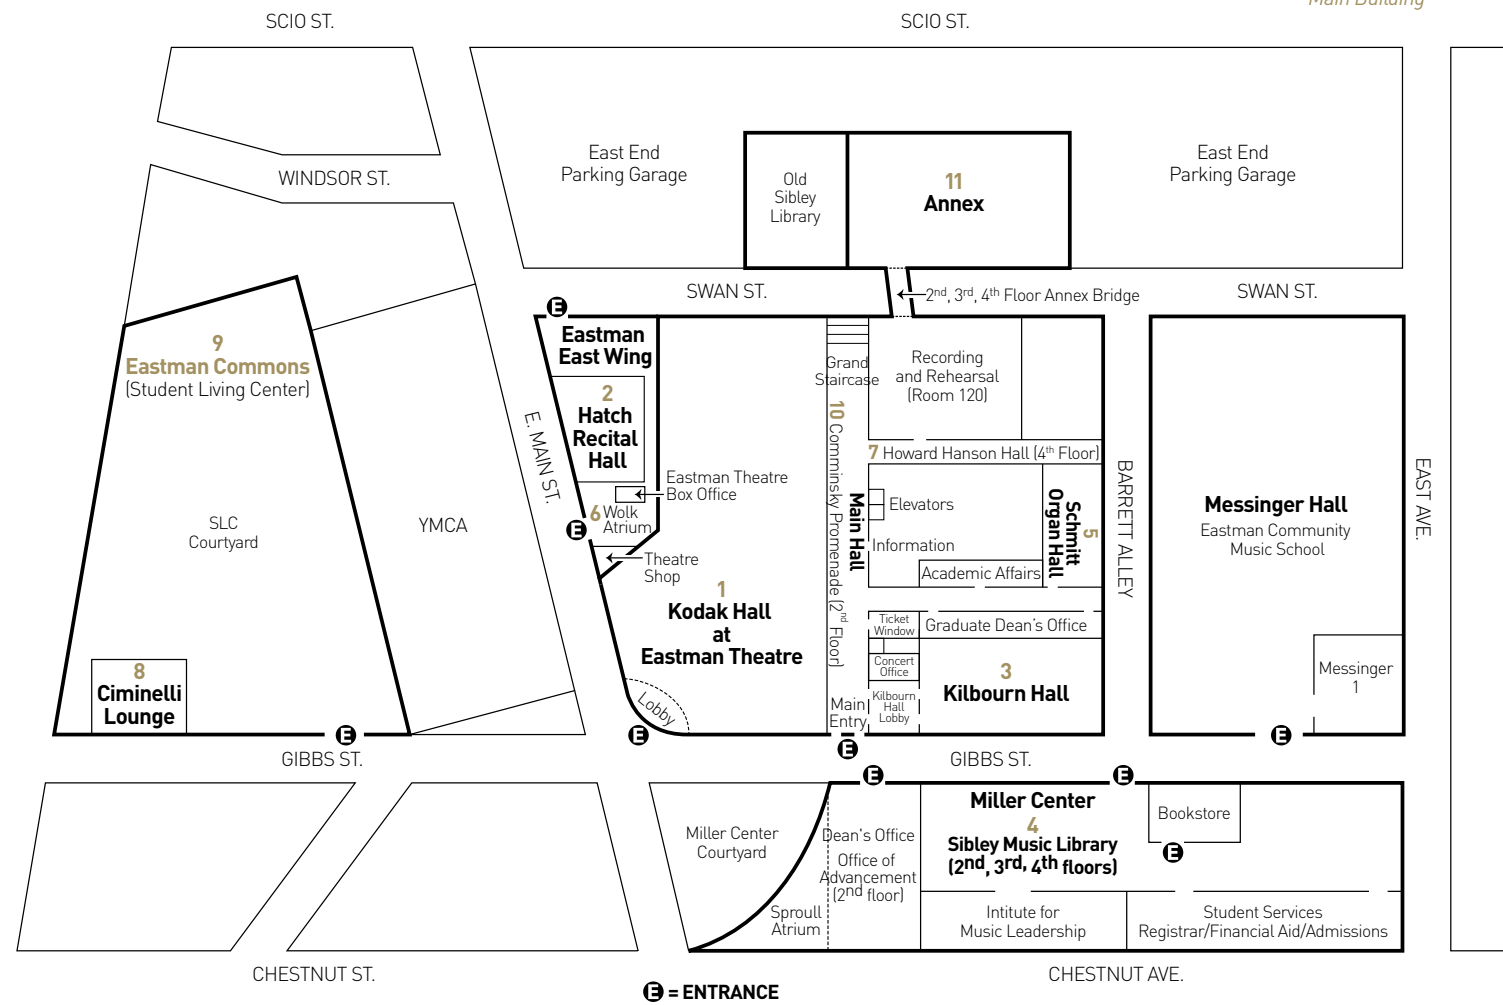

5. Schmitt Organ Hall

Completed in 1978, 96 seats

The Kilian and Caroline Schmitt Organ Recital Hall houses a custom-built Van Daalen organ. In 2000, the instrument was fully restored by the Dobson Organ Company.

1st Floor—Main Building

Ⓔ = ENTRANCE

10. Cominsky Promenade

A popular meeting place for the Eastman community and the home of an impressive collection of portraits of former Eastman faculty members, from the earliest years of the school to the present day.

2nd Floor—Main Building

11. The Annex

Includes faculty offices, classrooms, and more than 100 practice rooms. It also has two rehearsal halls and is the home of the Eastman Ensemble Library.

Entry on 2nd, 3rd, 4th Floor—Main Building

9. Student Living Center

A four-story quadrangle and 16-story tower surrounding a landscaped inner courtyard. The ground floor contains the Dining Center and Orchestra Pit snack bar, the Dean of Student Life's office and a satellite office of University Health Services.

8. Ciminelli Lounge

This beautiful, wood-paneled lounge features Steinway grand and upright pianos, superior acoustics, an adjacent green room, and self-service recording equipment. It is a popular place for non-degree recitals, and for auditions held by summer music programs.

1st Floor—Student Living Center

7. Howard Hanson Hall

Completed in 1978, 65 seats

This hall is named after the famous American composer, conductor, and music educator, who led the Eastman School from 1924 to 1964. This recital hall is in constant use for recitals, master classes, studio classes, and lectures, and features an acoustically isolated warm-up room and self-service stage, lighting, and recording equipment.

4th Floor—Main Building

6. Wolk Atrium

Completed in 2010, 73 feet high

Features a chandelier sculpted by renowned glass artist Dale Chihuly.

Eastman East Wing